

*W*indermere Education puts our agents on the leading edge. Windermere's educated, experienced sales associates are up-to-date on the latest market trends, thanks to Windermere's partnerships and nationally renowned education program.

Windermere Real Estate's education program is designed to be a one-stop shop, to help you as the owner, retain and recruit, offering our agents the very best in education from highly skilled and extremely knowledgeable instructors.

From pre-licensing to broker to social media courses, we offer a wide curriculum, including:

■ Real Estate Practices & Continuing Education: Whether agents are just getting their salesperson license, or looking to complete continuing education units, Windermere is proud to partner with OnlineEd, offering agents an online solution for all their immediate needs. As a broker, you are able to track the student's progress through a back office site, offer courses at a discounted rate, receive referral fees for directing students to the courses and offer monthly featured course webinars designed to educate and inspire.

■ Career Enhancement Courses: Easy-to-access, current REALTOR designations are available at your fingertips. With a discount or rebate available, this is a one-stop-shop to help agents achieve their desired success, in addition to allowing you to become their education resource center.

■ Windermere University: Windermere University offers a wide variety of technology training sessions focused on getting agents up to speed on marketing and technology tools that increase business today while building a "book of business" for sale tomorrow. Course topics include Windermere's innovative agent tools as well as classes on increasing your online presence, social networking and website options. Windermere University travels to your local office.
