WINDERMERE WELCOME HOME EXPANDS CASTRO VALLEY LOCATION
Office Moves to Accommodate Rapid Growth

San Ramon, Calif. – October 15, 2009 – Windermere Welcome Home is pleased to announce the new location of its' Castro Valley location, moving next door to accommodate the need for a larger, more spacious setting. Located in the busy Market Place shopping center, this site was selected to provide centralized real estate services for the East Bay area. The address will remain the same at 3811 E. Castro Valley Boulevard.

Windermere Welcome Home is owned by industry veteran Gretchen Pearson, who brings almost 30 years of real estate experience to the business. This XXXX square foot office currently houses 33 agents and has a total capacity of XX. The office will focus on the residential and commercial sectors of the community.

“With the average single family home price at $422,000 in Castro Valley and surrounding areas, we are seeing the beginning of a vibrant market,” says Pearson. “Our agents range from new salespeople to industry veterans, but they all have long standing reputations and complete area familiarization. This local expertise combined with the strength of Windermere’s technology and marketing tools and network will be a great benefit for our clients.”

Windermere Welcome Home can be reached at 510-537-9800.
